

TRUST for PUBLIC LAND

40 offices, 1000 Staff and Volunteers

TPL's Five Initiatives

Parks Have Many Benefits

Cleaner Air & Water

Better Health

Reduced Crime

Stronger Economy

Stronger Community

Park Design & Development Building Parks

TPL helps transform newly acquired or existing sites into parks, playgrounds, or restored natural areas.

TPL employs a participatory design process and solicits the viewpoints of all stakeholders.

Parks for People—San Francisco Initiative

- $16 Million Initiative to re-build 3 Parks in One City
- All in High-Need Neighborhoods
- Opportunity to Measure Impact on Physical Activity

Hayes Valley Playground

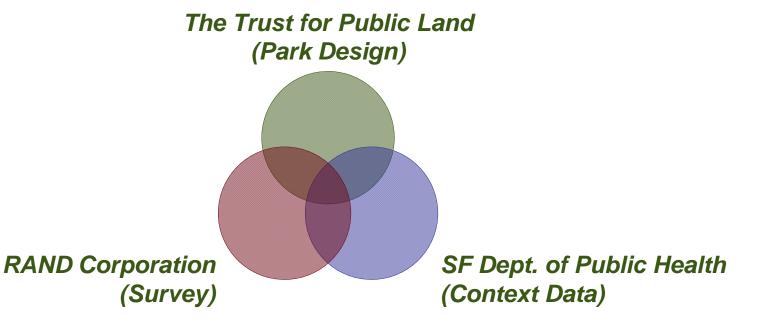

Balboa Park

Boeddeker Park

Partnership

"Park Renovation Impact on Physical Activity Among Youth"

Survey - SOPARC

- Park Use Observation
- Resident & Park User Surveys

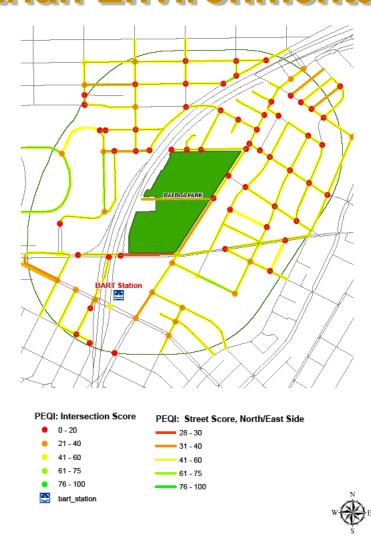

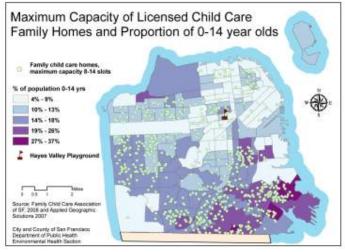

Pedestrian Environmental Quality Index

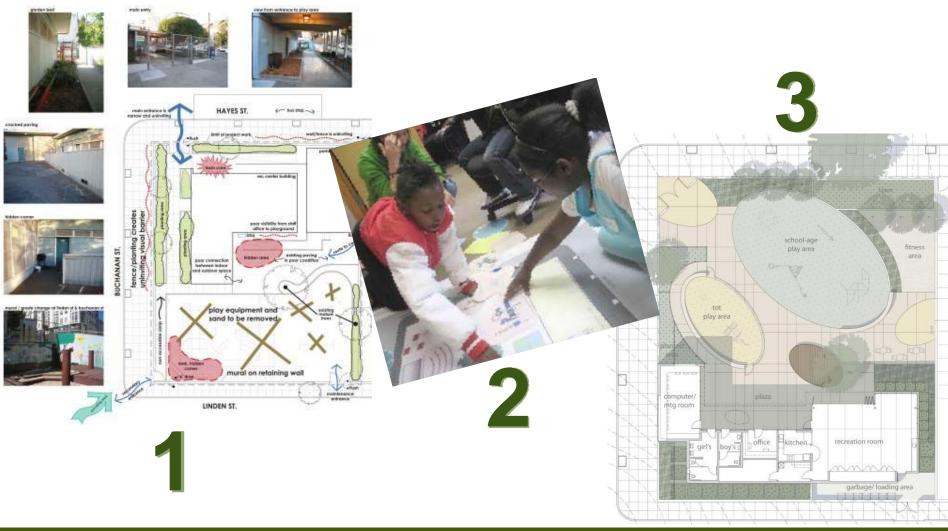

(PEQI)

Community Outreach – Park Design

Community Outreach - Techniques

Design – Hayes Valley Playground

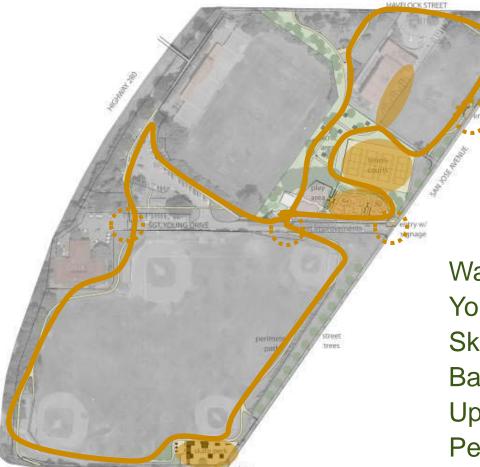

Active play equipment Fitness equipment Community gardening Support features

Design - Balboa Park

OCEAN AVENUE

Walking Paths
Youth Play Area
Skate Park
Basketball
Upgrade Tennis
Pedestrian Safety

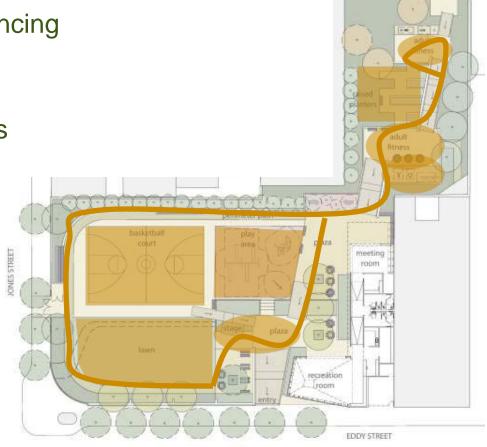

Design - Boeddeker Park

Fitness Equipment
T'ai Chi & Dancing
Play Area
Basketball
Walking Paths
Gardening

Play Lawn

ELLIS STREET

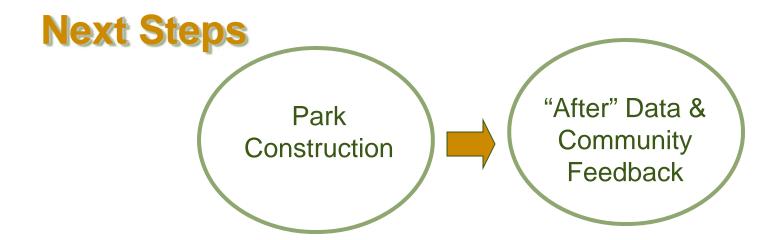

Conclusion

TRUST for PUBLIC LAND

